From the Contributions of Thousands in the

$2,200 PRIZE CONTEST

THE SURDAY WORLD.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1889.

PRICE ONE CENT.

RELEASE HIM!

Justice Calls for the Boy Shapiro's Restoration to His Parents.

Judge Andrews, of the Supreme Court, Says So Emphatically and Publicly.

Even the Police Justice Who Committed Him Demands His Discharge.

Cruel Obduracy of the Authorities of the Juvenile Asylum.

All Voices Raised Against Them in Supreme Court To-Day.

The story of the unjust and illegal detention of sixteen-year-old Heyman Shapiro, by the authorities of the New York Juvenile Asylum, as told yesterday in THE EVENING WORLD, has aroused the indignation of the entire com-

The position taken by the tyrannical Board, which has defiantly refused to give up the child identical with that assumed by it a year ago in the case of little Josie Shephard, so familiar to the readers of THE EVENING WORLD, who was only rescued from the clutches of the institu-

DEFYING THE JUDGE'S ORDER.

They have got the boy into their custody on technicality, and though Police Justice Mc-

Mahon, who committed the boy, has directed them to discharge him they continue to keep

The indications are that, as in the Josie Shephard case, they intend to show their authority

by detaining him as long as they can, and un-ess means can be found to prevent them, to pack him off with other poor waifs who have no friends or relations, to a life of hardship in

All that Heyman did was to sell lozenges in

For this Mr. Gerry's Society arrested him and procured his commitment to the institution

OVER THE LEGAL AGE.

The boy was found to be over sixteen years of age and his commitment acknowledged as

Steps were at once taken to free him, but even the order of the magistrate who committed him and of which a fac simile is given in THE EVEN

ING WORLD to-day, directing his discharge, was treated with contempt and derision, and the efforts of many well-known and influential citizens in behalf of the grief-stricken parents have only been mat with a persistent refusal to resonaider the case.

ISN'T THIS KIDNAPPING ?

It was two days after the arrest of Heyman on Aug. 15 that his parents learned that he was a prisoner in the Fifty-seventh Street Police Court. They had searched for him sverywhere. The word was brought to them by a messenger from the

NOT ALLOWED TO SEE HIM.

tion after a long and bitter fight.

some distant part of the country.

the Park to help his poor parents.

where he is now a prisoner.

him from his parents.

teenth street, saw the boy and found that the Cororer had already been there with the order of Justice McMahon for the boy's discharge, which had been ignored by Supt. Carpenter. Supt. Carpenter said that under the laws of the institution the boy could not be discharged except by an order of the Board.

APPEAL TO THE PRESIDENT. Coroner Levy wrote a letter to President E. M. Kingsley, of the Juvenile Asylum, in which he asked for the discharge of Heyman, reciting the injustice done the boy, and pledging himself and other signers of the letter to see that if any offense had been committed that it would not be repeated, guaranteeing that the boy would be well taken care of, and showing that the parents were respectable and hard-working people.

AIDED BY BUSINESS MEN. The letter was signed by a number of business men, including Philip M. Fleishman, shoe dealer, 1052 Third avenue; Mr. Lippmann, clothing merchant. Broome street and Broadway: H. W. Bachman, of Leonard street and Broadway: L. Magnus & Co., tobacco dealers, Third avenue and Seventy-second street, and D. Jones, importer, 21 Walker street.

THE LETTER DETAINED. This letter was referred to Supt. Carpenter, but never found its way to the Committee.

In this way the efforts made by Coroner Levy and Mr. Allen were continually thwarted, and the matter stands now just where it did two months ago.

HOME OF THE PARENTS. A visit to the home of the Shapiro family at 324 East Sixty-first street showed that they occupied four rooms on the second floor of the house, which is a large double tenement.

They have lived there seven years, and the father. Harris Shapiro, who is a hard-working shoemaker, is well known in the community.

FOOR, BUT HARD-WORKING.

The rooms are scantily furnished and indicate that the people are very poor, but they are neat and clean in every respect. Mr. Shapiro does his cobbling in one of the little rooms and barely makes enough to support his wife and three young children.

HEYMAN A SCHOLAR.

HEYMAN A SCHOLAR.

Heyman, the eldest of the four, has attended school for several years, and only lately in his vacation has he undertaken to help his father out by selling candies in the Central Park. The neighbors all say that he was a good boy to his parents and did all he could to assist them.

It was his own suggestion that he should peddle lozenges, and as he invariably returned home early every night, bringing with him all he earned to his father, his disappearance at the time of his arrest caused great alarm in the neighborhood.

HIS MOTHER AN INVALID.

HIS MOTHER AN INVALID.

The mother has been an invalid for several years, and her latest trouble has almost completely broken down her health.

Her neighbors say that she is wasting away very day, and they do not believe that she can ive much longer unless the Asylum people re-

The WARDEN and REEPER of the State of the Give Res

SEPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD,]

Around his bedside were gathered all the members of his family.

Luis L. King of Portugal and of the Algarves, was born in 1838 and succeeded to the throne on the 11th of November, 1861, at the death without issue of his elder brother, King Pedro V. Two years later he married the second daughter of King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, by whom he has two sons. The elder of the latter, known as the Duke of Braganza, and who will succeed to the throne as Carlos I., was married in 1886 to the daughter of the Comte de Paris, the French pretender. The Duke has already on several occasions, both during his father's travels abroad and frequent illnesses, held the Regency of the kingdom.

nand of Coburg.
The principal events of King Louis's reign were the treaty with China by which Portugal | Bro obtained the peninsula of Macao; the abolition of slavery in all Portuguese possessions in February, 1868; the sale on behalf of the Government of the ecclesiastical estates, and King Louis's refusal of the crown of Spain, which

ITS CONVENTION ADJOURNED IN HOPE OF COMPROMISE.

Not despairing of the final success of the citi-Democracy organization have determined on an adjournment of their County Convention, called Judge Andrews spent some time in examining the statutes giving the Asylum and Society their power over the commitment of children, and expressed his opinion very emphatically.

The mother was almost prostrated with fright the mother was almost prostrated with fright at the news. She hastened to the prison, as the father was too busy to leave his work, only to find that her boy had been turned over to the saylum authorities. EVERYBODY WANTS HIM BELEASED.

She pleaded tearfully for his release, telling the officers that he was her eldest son, and aspected materially in the support of the family. They would not believe her and sent her away heart-broken. "The police justice revoked his commitment, and everybody who had anything to do with the case originally seems to regard the boy's discharge as justifiable, and if I shought I had the authority I would discharge the child on the

Judge Andrews made the following inderse

MES. SHAPIRO BREAKS DOWN. The parents of the boy, who were in court, were almost heart-broken when they learned he decision, and the mother broke down completely, and was led from the court-room soboling bitterly. The ad seene deeply affected all those who were present.

Whether another effort will be made at the nature there are the part, which occurs on Manday evening next, for the release of the child is not decided.

a... Over Until Next Week.

briefs.
The matter will probably be decided early

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

LUIS IS DEAD. NO

Portugal's Ruler Passes Away After, "The Evening World" Decisively Chronicled Brooklyn's Victory. a Long Sickness.

About His Bedside.

Father of a Queen.

Lisnon, Oct. 19.-The King of Portugal, who

The Comte de Paris, whose daughter is the wife of the Crown Prince, was one of the latest

The reigning dynasty of Portugal belongs to the House of Braganza, which dates from the fifteenth century, at which period Alfonso, an illegitimate son of King John I., was created by his father Duke of Braganga. When the old line of Portuguese Kings of the House of Avis became extinct, the country was seized by King Philip I. of Spain. But in 1640 the people arose in insurrection, drove out the Spanish usurpers and proclaimed Don Joso, Duke of Braganza, as their King, he being the nearest heir to the throne, though of an illiegitimate issue. For two centuries the dynasty of Braganza kept up blood alliances with the royal house of Spain. but the custom was broken by the mother of the present King, who married Prince Ferdi-

COUNTIES NOT QUITE READY.

sens' movement, the leaders of the County adjournment of their County Convention, called for this afternoon at Cooper Union.

It is the orinion of the leaders that resolutions looking to union be passed and conference committees appointed, after which an adjournment will be had until Thursday next.

The action of the Sub-Executive Committee in regard to the proposed conferences is peculiar, inasmuch as one of the propositions is for a conference with all anti-Fammany organization-with a view to union on a county ticket opposed to that nominated at Tammany Hall on Tuesday night, while the other conference is to be sought with Tammany Hall for the purpose of securing a union on legislative nominations throughout the city.

a union on legislative nominations throughout the city.

The basis of this latter union as proposed by the Counties is the same outlined in The Eventure World of the Same of the Tammany legislators of the last session to be returned. Chamberlain Croker has characterized this as an impossible condition and if the Counties do not recede from their position union is looked upon as extremely doubtful.

Wednesday is generally conceded to be the day when the Citizens' ticket will be placed in the field and the County Democracy and Republican conventions which will be held the following day, are expected to indorse it.

Flaning Miss Le Hunt Tuken Back. Miss Mary Le Hunt, who eloped with her ather's gardener from County Wexford and was detained at Castle Garden, was taken back by her brother to-day on the steam-hip Ems. The gardener, John Burns, was sent back in the Au-

Fire Scare in a Tenement. The women and children in the six-story tenement. 81 Stanton street, were put to hasty flight this morning by the sudden breaking out of fire in Max Landers's laundry on the ground floor. The laundry was wiped out.

BRADTCROTINE cured headache for B.F. Brown, Hillsman, Ga. .

Most Notable Feature

OF RECENT

METROPOLITAN JOURNALISM

$2,200 IDEA CONTEST

See The Sunday World.

The Members of the Royal Family And Was the Only Paper to Do So.

The Comte De Paris Will Now Be the The Double Advantage of Getting News and Knowing Baseball Rules.

> THE EVENING WORLD Sporting Extra was the only paper to decisively chronicle yesterday's victory of the Brooklyns at the Polo Grounds. Thus it maintains its standing as the Sporting Extra par excellence, and the paper in which to look for reliable returns from the great events of each day,

> More than once has its knowledge of baset all rules thus brought THE EVENING WORLD to the front, while contemporaries less well informed. were struggling in mists and doubt, and endeavoring to plunge their readers into the same ncertainties.

> While recognizing in a few lines the fact that there was an unfortunate technical dispute in the eighth inning, THE EVENING WORLD placed ictory where it belonged under the rules of the game.
> The news was not good for New Yorkers, but it was the news and was to be printed.
> It made giad tidings for the Brooklyn people, and The Evenino World alone brought it to hem. The rule under which the game went to Brook-yn, regardless of the technical dispute, is here > subjoined:

> Rule 25—If the umpire calls "Game" on account > of darkness or rain at any time after five innings > have been completed by both sides, the score shall be > that of the last equal fornings played, unless the side > second at bat shall have scored one or more runs > than the side first at bat, in which case the score of > the game shall be the total number of runs made.
> Under this rule the game was substantially > won when Brooklyn made its third run in the > sighth inning. eighth inning.
>
> Moral of all this: Buy The Evenino World, always, for the news.

SAW THE GAME IN PARK ROW.

Thousands of Buseball Enthusiasts Watching "The Evening World" Bolletin

Fully 10,000 people blocked Park Row yesterday afternoon to see the first of the cham-pionship games between the Giants and the Bridegrooms as it was played on THE EVENING WORLD bulletin board.

The younger generation of cranks began to The younger generation of cranks began to fill up the reserved seats on the narrow ledges which project from the Post-Office pillars by 2 o'clock. Play was called a few seconds after 3. Every brilliant play, whether by a Gianto a Brooklynite, was vociferously applauded, and it was difficult to determine by the accent of the shouts whether the crowd most wanted New York or Brooklyn to win.

The crowd bubbled over with good nature, and it didn't care a peg who won—the honors would be "at home" anyway, and that was enough.

and it didn't care a peg who won—the honors would be "at home" anyway, and that was enough.

When Sir Tim Keefe was placed in the box for the beginning of the last half of the first inning, the enthusiasm of the crowd was tremendous. And when seven of Brooklyn's mighty men stepped to the plate and "histed" the ball clear out of reach of all the New York fielders and netted five runs, the crowd went wild with delight.

Then, when the Giants caught up, they yelled themselves almost into an apoplexy. When the men from across the bridge overtook them again, the impatient "rooters" for the linning out of their throats expressing their approval. Oh, it was a New York crowd and it was a Brooklyn crowd that gathered about Time Evexnow World bulletin board and watched the game and "rooted" for more than two hours; and when the last man was out and the Grooms had won there was a wild, glorious slogan from that crowd that belokened the sweetest satisfaction of pride, for, after all, it was "our boys" that won as well as lost.

TO-DAY'S BATTLE,

To Be Fought in Brooklyn Before a Tre

To-day the battle for the world's champion ship will be continued, and this afternoon Brooklyn "rooters" will have the satisfaction of seeing their pet players do battle on their

The victory which the Bridegrooms scored vesterday renders the series even more interesting than ever, for by winning the first game they greatly reduced the odds which from the start betting men and Gotham cranks have been ready to lay against them.
To-day Umpire Lon Knight will propably be on hand and share the work with the able Gaff-

W. Ich and Caruthers are the pitchers at present decided upon, but it is possible that Weich may give place to Crane.

The largest crowd of the season is looked for at Washington Park. Game will be called at 3 o clock.

TO-MORROW NIGHT'S BENEFIT.

Everything to Go According to the Published Programme.

To-morrow night comes the Giants' benefit. The detailed programme and other interesting news concerning it have already been published in The Evening World.

In spite of reports to the contrary, Messra.

Pepper, Gus Williams and Trewey will appear.
Mayor Grant has sent word to the Committee, excusing himself from making the presentation
special, but accepting the invitation to be Seats can still be had at the box-office of the Broadway Theatre.

Look Out for This Mun. An alarm to all police precincts was sent out to-day calling for the arrest of a man of forty years of age, with light hair and mustache who is passing greenbacks altered from the on dollar to the two-dollar denomination,

Broke the Oldest Chinaman's Leg-Gai Wook, aged seventy-two years, the oldest Chinaman in New York, was knocked down the basement of 32 Pell street to-day by Bridget Carroll, who ran away. Gai Woon had his leg

EVERYBODY IS TRYING FOR THE

A GREAT SUCCESS.

THOUSAND-DOLLAR IDEA

AND OTHER PRIZES.

SEE THE SUNDAY WORLD.

WORKING BLAINE OUT.

Notorious Jenny Marshall.

Jenny Marshall, acknowledged queen of the emi-monde of this city for so many years, is vine, was the cause of her demise. She left an estate valued at about $300,000. nostly invested in city real estate. This she has willed back in part to the men who paid it as Jenny came to this country, with her parents, when very young from County Mayo, Ireland. As she grew up she developed into a wonderfully beautiful woman. She was tall, of a willowy figure, finely and gracefully moulded. Her eyes were one of her most striking features. They were a grayish brown, with beautifully marked, dark, thick eyebrows, which met above the nose. The nose was aquiline, finely chiselied. The lips and set of the mouth were very "fetching," backed as they were by snowy teeth.

head, while her complexion was clear and creamy, flushing under excitement.

In short, she was one of the most beautiful women of her day, and up to the time of her death retained her good looks, though forty-five very of the complexion.

women of her day, and up to the death retained her good looks, though forty-five years of age.

She died at her home, 142 West Thirty-third street. Her apartments were richly though unostentatiously furnished.

One dark spot in her life, to which she could never endure allusion, was the robbery, about five years ago, of a wealthy business man of this city, living at Staten Island. She plundered him of $12,000 while he was visiting her at her apariments. He did not seek to recover the money by legal means, fearing publicity. It is said that she afterwards gave back a portion of the money.

Jenny Marshail was the most sought-after demi-mondaine in the city. Bankers, brokers, politicians and business men vied with one another for her smiles. They showered gifts of all kinds upon this autocratic woman, who held them by the golden chains of her beauty and wit. For she was witty and talented to a remarkable degree. She seldom got the worst of a battle of quick-witted repartee.

Jenny was of nomadic habits. She would wander all about the country, following the races, for the tekle horses seemed to possess a strong fascination for her.

She had a real, live Count for a factorum and

The $40,000 bail bonds of ex-Alderman Louis Wendel, who is indicted for bribery in connection with the Broadway Railway franchise, were renewed in the District-Attorney's office this morning. His new bondsmen are: Louis Karch, $25,000; Yalentine Lowef, $10,000, and Francis Nehr, $5,000.

Notifying Tammany's Candidates, The Tammany Hall Committee on Notification

THAT $1,000 IDEA!

Perhaps You Have It.

IF SO, SEND IT TO

Reign of Terror.

Pedestrians on Sixth avenue, opposite the Jefferson Market Police Court, were terrified and thrown into wild excitement this morning by the savage actions offa crazy man. It was between 9 and 10 o'clock in the morn-of the avenue, close to the corner of Ninth He began his antics by waving his hands and

He began his antics by waving his hands and shouting at the elevated railroad trains.

A crowd gathered and the man made a sudden rish at them, scattering them in all directions. Then he started in to hold the street to himself. He made vicious thrusts at passers-by with his fists, screaming with all his might.

The crowd moved off to a sate distance and gave the man the entire silewalk. Presently Roundsman Wood, of the Mercer street station, appeared, and walking up to the man, tapped him on the shoulder, and quietly said: "Come, let's go home."

The maniac turned around and gave the roundsman a stinging blow on the head, which sent him reeling to the sidewalk.

He rallied, and grasping his club struck the man a blow which sent him sprawling.

As he was about to get up the roundsman immped on him, pinning the enraged man to the sizewalk.

The policeman called on the crowd to help him, but they were afraid, and the two men struggled in a deathly grip, the athletic policeman exerting all his strength to keep the maniac under control.

Finally, two men who had a little more courman exerting all his strength to keep the maniac under control.

Finally, two men who had a little more courage than the others, went to Boundsman Wood's assistance, and the two managed to overcome the man.

he man. A piece of rope was obtained from an express ragon, and the man's arms were bound behind A piece of rope was obtained from an express wagon, and the man's arms were bound behind him to his legs.

Then he was put in a strait-jacket and carried to Bellevue Hospital in an ambulance.

At Bellevue, the physicans recognized him as having been confined in the institution before suffering from acute mania.

The Tman refused to give his name or tell where he lived and he was put down as an unknown man.

MOBBED THE COLLECTRESS.

MISS RAYMOND DRAGGED BY THE HAIR

AND LOCKED IN A CLOSET. Miss Minnie Raymond, who lives at 853 Madison street, Brooklyn, was complainant in Essex Market to-day against Elias Stepansky.

Miss Raymond, who is a collectress for a sew-ing-machine company, said she went to Steping-machine company, said she went to Stepansky's home, at 6 Bayard street, yesterday, to collect an instalment on a machine, but he did not have the money.

Sie attenuted to carry the upper part of the machine away with her, but was prevented by all the members of the family.

Stepansky, Miss Raymond claimed, took her by the hair of the head and dragged her into an adjoining room and locked has up for an hour. When she was liberated whe was told to look for the machine. They had hidden it.

Stepansky had a half-dozen witnesses, who swore that the collectress had drawn a small pen-knife and endeavored, to stab Eva Stepansky, the defendant's damenter.

To confirm this Eva showed Justice Duffy a section of a broken blade. This she claimed was broken when Miss Raymond stabbed her in the corsels.

Stepansky was held.

Ciliton Entries for Monday. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I CLIFTON RACE TRACE, N. J., Oct. 19.—Here are the entries and probable starters for Clifton races Monday, Oct. 21: races Monday, Oct. 21;

First Race—Five furlongs: selling.—Mr. Pelham, 108; Bele Peytin gelding, 108; Maggie K. (formerly Miss Annie filig), 103; Lemome H., 103; Bicky Knott, 100;
Lilits M., 100 ib.
Second Race—Sia and one-half furlongs, selling.—Soio is, 112; Raymond G. 112; Gardner, 112; Prince Edward, 111; Little Addie, 100; Airred B. 107;
Eatontioni, 107; Sparing, 107; Deception, 106;
Darling, 104; Lillie M. 104; Lady Archer, 104;
Third Race—Seven ruplongs, selling.—Young Dake, 118; Umpire, 114; Falcon, 112; Carnegie, 114; Defones, 110; Bath, 10; Raymond, 107; Lakewood, 107;
A Reed, 107; Sir Rodarick, 107; Firefly, 100; Speclally, 90; b.

aity, 961b.
Fourni Race—Paterson Handicap; mile and an eighth.
Baliston, 122; Maid of Orieans, 111; Stileck, 106;
lambridge, 104; Panama, 103; Question, 99; Bellair,
7; Galins Dan, 93; Charlie Basesil, 93 lb.
Fifth Race—Perse-quarters of a mile.—Strideawy,
22; Young Duke, 121; Brian Boru, 122; Lafits,
22; Speedwell, 119; Oscoola, 119; Ocean 116; Sc Sc, 17; lb. 117 lb.
Sixth Race—One mile,—Westfield, 122: Flagelot, 122: Gen. Gordon, 122: Sallie Harper, 119; Duke of Leinster, 113: Queen Hattle, 110 lb.

Pittsburg's Diphtheria Scourge. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

PITTEBURG. Pa., Oct. 19,-The health authorities are becoming alaymed over the spread of diphtheria. So far this month, ninety-seven cases have been reported and twenty-five deaths. THE most conspicuous of all the L read signs is the big QUAKER OATS package, "a"

Corporal Tanner's Yacated Office Falls to the Illinois General.

The Appointment of a Pension Commissioner Comes at Last.

The Appointee a Good Republican,

a Good G. A. R. Man

And Once an Office-Holder Under President Grant.

WARRINGTON, Oct. 16 Gen. Green B. Raum, of Himois, was appointed Commissioner of Pensions this morning, to succeed James

Gen. Raum's appointment is a genuine supprise and is directly in the face of the probabilities indicated by various correspondents and others at Washington.

The appointee is sixty years of age, a native of Illinois and a lawyer by profession.

He was a War Democrat, but later became enrolled with the Republicans. He entered the army as a major and went out, in 1885, as a brevet brigadier-general.

He was with Grant at Vicksburg and was wounde ! at Missionary Ridge.

He was a Congressman from 1867 to 1869: President of the Illinois Republican Convention in 1876; a delegate to the National Convention in the same year: Commissioner of Internal Revenue (appointed by Grant) from 1876 to 1883.

MRS. WHITTEMORE AGAIN. SHE ACCUSES LAWYER HAIRE OF HAVING

STOLEN HER FURNITURE. Mrs. Annie E. Wetmore, alias Whittemore, alias Peck, alias Wallingford, who has been in the police courts very often of late, and who a week ago told a story of midnight robbery on this morning against Lawyer Robert J. Haire, of Chambers street, whom she charged with grand larceny. According to Mrs. Whittemore's testimony. Haire, who was her counsel, took advantage of her imprisonment to take from her apartments her imprisonment to take from her apartments in 200 West Fifty-third street $2,500 worth of furniture, which he sold for his own advantage. Are Haire snoduced Henry Shayne, maeager for Behwarzkopf & Co., furniture dealers, of Third avenue, who testified that his employers held a mortgage on Mrs. Wetmore's property, and that he foreclosed it when she was in prison and a City Marshall had dispossessed her.

Broadway, was complainant in Yorkville Court

Other witnesses corroborated Mr. Shayne. The case was adjourned until Oct. 30, and Lawyer Haire was naroled.

Among Mrs. Whittemore's recent troubles was her alleged detention of a wealthy merchant in her house and inspector Ryan's complaint of larceny against her.

MUMMIFIED IN A FURNACE. A HORRIBLE FIND BY WORKMEN AT PITTS-

BURG TO-DAY. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 19.-A puddler at Long's rolling mill noticed something in the draught chamber back of the furnace.

He reached his hand and withdrew a blackened and charred bone which proved to be part of a human leg.
After the gas had been shut off, a force of men tore the side wall out of the draught chamber.

A terrible sight met their gaze. Crouched in the small chamber was the body of a man. His lower extremities had been burned off, his fingers had been charred and had dropped off and the rest of the body had been baked until it was the color of leather and resembled a munity.

The fisch on the head was burned away and the skull bores were charred and bare down to the lips, which were somewhat burned, but still retained their shape.

The short chin whiskers were not burned off. The remains were identified as those of Thomas Dougherty, who had been missing a week.

He probably crawled into the chamber to sleep, and when the gas was turned on was asphyristed.

$100,000 FIRE IN NEWARK. THE HARRISON AVENUE TAN BARK WORKS

DESTROYED.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. NEWARK, Oct. 19 .- At 2 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the engine foom of the Tan Bark works, on Harrison avecaged and spread rapidly.

Before the city fire engines could get there the entire building was razed to the ground.

E. L. Smith & Co., the proprietors, place their loss at $100,000. A set of costly new machinery had recently been put in by the firm, and was a total loss. Bark works, on Harrison avenue. East Newark,

No Change in Annie Green's Condition. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENISH WORLD.)
NEWARE, N. J., Oct. 19.—The mpstery suprounding the strange case of Annie Green is apparently as far from solution as ever. There is no change in her condition to-day, though it is hoped she will recover.

That Bearing Down Palu Is cured by Canten's Inos Pills. At draggists'. .

A PAGE OF IDEAS

OFFERED IN

Great Prize Contest

WILL BE PRINTED IN

THE SUNDAY WORLD.

After that she went twice alone to the office of the asylum in Thirteenth street, and twice with her husband. They begged to be allowed even to see the boy, but this was denied by Carpenter, the Superintendent, who would not even listen to their entreaties and finally ordered them cut of the place.

In despair they applied to their friends, who suggested that the case be brought to the attention of Coroner Levy, whose sympathes were immediately sulfisted.

Though his influence Vice-President Henry S. Allen, of the United Hebrew Charities, who is also a director in Mr. Gerry's Society, was interested in the case.

JUDGE M'MARON'S ORDER PRESENTED. JUDGE M'MARON'S ORDER PRESENTED. Mr. Allen went to the asylum office in Thir-

Nellie Bly's Double, WASHINGTON SENSATION. The Grumbler,

A MULTITUDE OF FEATURES. $2,200 PRIZE CONTEST,

The Phonograph, den, dee., dee., dee., dee., dee., The Sunday World.

PASSIMILE OF JUSTICE M'MAHON'S ORDER TO THE JUVENILE ASYLUM FOR THE BOY'S DISCHARGE. to his heart-broken parents in the face of the most conclusive proof of the good character of her other children. CORONER LEVY'S SYMPATRY. the boy and the respectability of his family, is

N.I. M maken

"It is the most pitiful case that ever came to my notice," said Coroner Levy yesterday, "and I have seen a great many of them in my experience.
"I think now THE EVENING WORLD has taken up the case that there is a good chance of the parents getting their boy released. A RIGHT TO EARN HIS LIVING.

"The fact that he is over sixteen is enough to give him the privilege of earning his living by any honest work without interference from the Society. This injustice should be remedied and that speedily." HADEAN CORPUS FOR THE BOY. Writs of habeas corpus and certiorari were obtained by Howe & Hummel at the request of the Coroner, and the case was set down for to-day by Judge Andrews in the Supreme Court.

THE CASE IN COURT. When the case came up at 11 o'clock the Asylum Board was not represented. The Children's Society had Supt. Jenkius and Agent Stecking. with their counsel.

Abe Hummer pre-ented the facts forcibly and eloquently, and asked for the boy's immediate discharge, but the counsel for the Society made the return to the writ, showing that the commitment was perfectly regular and that the parents had due notice.

GERRY'S SOCIETY WILLING. As far as the Society was concerned he de-clared they were in favor of giving the boy back to his parents, and since the facts had come out they felt institled in making such a recommen-dation to the Asylum Board. JUDGE ANDREWS EMPHATIC.

A LEGAL TECHNICALITY. "It is evident," he said. "that the Legislature in these extraordinary laws did not contemplate prosecuting children for misdemeanor. "However, I cannot disregard the law as it stands, but must enforce it. The only remedy is with the Legislature.

A MATIER OF COMMON DECENCY.

"It is strange that the Asylum authorities in-sist on holding the child in view of the facts, and when the Children's Society comes forward and says he ought to be discharged.
"As a matter of common decency they should give the boy up.

HE SHOULD BE DISCHARGED. Upon the writ:

Upon the merits of the case as presented to me in court I think the boy ought to be discharged, and if I were of the octation that I could iswfully direct his discharge I should do sp. As the commission is regular and valid I must dismiss the writ.

GEORGE P. ANDREWS, Statics Supreme Court.

COUNSEL SUBMIT BRIEFS. The Electric Light Companies' Case Goes

Counsel for the various electric light companies and Assistant Corporation Conusel Dean appeared before Judge Andrews in the Supreme Court, Chambers, to-day and submitted their CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Four hundred invitations have been issued for a banquet in honor of the Pan-Ameri-can delegates at the Grand Pacific Hotel, to-night. PITTABLERO, Oct. 19.—Henry Rossman went to an upstairs room to put one of his children to bed last night, and after doing so shot himself dead. HARRY CITE, Ore., Oct. 19 .- The mail stage be-tween Baker City and Canyon was held up and roth ell by a single man, this attraing.

Death of the Wondrously Beautiful but He Bosses Sixth Avenue and Has a

Bright's disease, induced by her fondness for ing and the avenue was thronged. The man suddenly made his appearance on the east side tribute to her beauty, and the remainder to obscure relatives in this country and Ireland.

A wealth of chestnut hair adorned the shapely head, while her complexion was also wander all about the country, lonowing the races, for the nickle horses seemed to possess a strong fascination for her.

She had a real, live fount for a factorium and man of business. He was really the possessor of a noble title.

Every race-goer of Gotham was accustomed to see her beautifully clad and trim figure leaning excitedly from the grand-stand boxes at the neighboring tracks.

Hers was a familiar form at Delmonico's, the Brunswick, fra nor's, the theatres and grand public balls. It is said of her that she never missed any of the fancy balls given by the French societies of New York.

She was as well known in Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia almost at its highest tide and excitement most intense.

She provided for a large number of retainers and was very charitable to the poor, many of whom will beneat by her will.

New Bail Bonds for Louis Wendel.

will officially notify the candidates nominated last Thesday's Convention, in the Morton ouse, late this afternoon, The B PLUS UNE five-cent cigar will make firm everlanting friends with the councisseur. Give trial.

The Sunday World.